AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL ESSAY

Compose a one to two page autobiographical essay on separate sheet(s) of paper. You may relate any special circumstances the committees should know in order to better determine the granting of scholarships. Include any interesting, unusual or goal-shaping incidents that have occurred during your lifetime. The autobiography should give insight into you as a person; provide information pertaining to your financial need, educational/career goals, and extracurricular activities. Be specific. Include information regarding what activities you have been involved in that are connected with the qualifications for this scholarship. Remember to check the spelling and grammar in your application and in your essay. Overall appearance of your application is important, neatness counts.

IF YOU HAVE APPLIED FOR FINANCIAL AID AND HAVE NOT HEARD BACK YET, please indicate that you are waiting to hear in the Scholarship/Grants estimated income section on Page 1 of your Application.
